
En+ response to press speculation

18 January 2019 - In response to recent press reports, EN+ GROUP PLC (the "Company" or the "Group") (LSE: ENPL, MOEX: ENPL) confirms that, as part of the arrangements pursuant to which Mr Oleg Deripaska's direct and indirect ownership interest in the Company will be reduced to below 50%, Mr David Knowler, Mr David Crane and Mr D. J. Baker have been identified as independent individuals who may, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, exercise the voting rights attaching to certain shares of the Company, as required by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control.

This announcement may include statements that are, or may be deemed to be, "forward-looking statements". These forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, including the terms "believes", "estimates", "plans", "projects", "anticipates", "expects", "intends", "may", "will" or "should" or, in each case, their negative or other variations or comparable terminology, or by discussions of strategy, plans, objectives, goals, future events or intentions. Forward-looking statements may and often do differ materially from actual results. Any forward-looking statements reflect the Company's current view with respect to future events and are subject to risks relating to future events and other risks, uncertainties and assumptions relating to the Group's business, results of operations, financial position, liquidity, prospects, growth or strategies. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made.
