(b) Going concern basis

As at 31 March 2020 Company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by USD 191,920 thousand. Liabilities are mainly represented by loans to related parties.

The management believes that the Company will be able to meet its obligations and the financial information of the Company have been prepared on a going concern basis after taking into consideration that as at 31 March 2020 the Company has unused credit facilities in the amount of USD 212,131 thousand to cover its current liabilities in case they become due.

(c) COVID-19

As a result of the COVID-19 outbreak during 2020, aluminium prices continued to deteriorate. This factor had an adverse impact on the revenue and profitability of UC RUSAL PLC, (the Company's significant investment), partially offset by rouble depreciation. As aluminium prices are forecast to continue to remain at depressed levels in 2020, management of UC RUSAL PLC is implementing a number of measures including, but not limited to, cost and working capital optimization, and negotiations with the lenders, as appropriate.

At the date of this Report, the Company continues to assess the impact of these factors on its financial position, including the valuation of investments, and thoroughly monitors all developments.
